

Passed on 15/11/2016. I started lessons with Ian after my last instructor left me in the lurch right before a test.

Within 2 lessons my anxiety around roundabouts had decreased completely and I was no longer trying to actively avoid them! Ian was amazing, his teaching style was completely relaxed and he built my confidence up in no time. I have a tendency to get really anxious and frustrated if I make a mistake but I found Ian was brilliant at calming me down and getting me to approach things in a new way. His humour and relaxed style is guaranteed to help even the most nervous learner. I could not recommend Ian highly enough, having tried out a range of instructors he was the best by a clear mile. I passed my test second time around but having only received 4 faults on my first test and only 1 on my second I can say with complete certainty I owe my pass to Ian who was so accommodating and calm. I found myself actually looking forward to lessons which was a hundred miles from my previous instruction. If you're looking for an instructor you've found the best possible one in Ian. 10/10!!

Congratulations Chelsea.
