

Passed on 17/01/2018. Ian is a very patient and extremely friendly driving instructor. After initially starting lessons with him during college, I felt that I had too much on my plate and had to take some time away from driving. However, a year later when I started up lessons again I was so surprised at how much I remembered and how natural it all felt! It just goes to show how much of a great teacher he is, that all of the lessons I had previously had with him had stayed in my little brain even with all the extra work I was doing along side! I would easily recommend him to anyone, he is very trustworthy and also reassuring, and will help give you the confidence you need when you feel like you have none. If you think that you can take on his corny jokes, then Ian is the driving instructor for you!

Congratulations Hannah
